1. Harmlessly the story struck up.
But suddenly you got the great shock,
The horizon was darkened by a big black cloud.
The diagnosis surprised me so much!

Refrain:

Why on earth is it you?
You've kept everyting quiet cool!
You lived your life with joy and energy.
In the spirit of illness you never loose your smile,
You endure your pain with confidence.
Painful for me, cause helping is impossible for me!

2. Like a sneak the cancer sneaked into your life.
it appaeared without a warning sign.
Routine examinations - was usual for you,
but the result devastated you absolute!

Why on earth is it you?"
